Evans & Mullinix Newest Attorney Ryan White Wins Nationwide Contest

SHAWNEE, Kan. (February 24, 2010) Evans & Mullinix announced that their newest attorney, Ryan White, was a winner of The American Bar Association's Law Student Tax Challenge, a nationwide contest designed to give students an opportunity to research, write about and present an analyses of a "real life" tax planning problem.

White, of the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law, and his challenge partner, Nicole Forsythe, won for the best written submission and also took first place for oral argument and overall in the LL.M. (Master of Laws) Division. The teams presented oral arguments before a panel of tax lawyers at the ABA's Tax Section Mid-year Meeting in San Antonio in January.

White joined Evans & Mullinix in January 2010 and practices in the areas of taxation, business law, bankruptcy, estate planning, family law and litigation. He will earn his Master of Laws in Taxation in 2010 from UMKC. He received his Juris Doctorate from UMKC in 2009. Prior to attending law school, White earned his M.B.A. from Rockhurst University in 2006 and B.S. in Business Administration in 2005. He is a member of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association and the American Bar Association.

Founded in 1974, Evans & Mullinix is a regional law firm offering a broad range of services for both businesses and individuals. The firm is regarded as one of the premier firms in the Midwest. The firm serves clients in Kansas and Missouri and litigates cases in federal, state and municipal courts; bankruptcy courts; and administrative agencies.
